Phi Beta Delta International Honor Society

SCIENTIA MUTUA MUNDI

AN HONORARY SOCIETY DEDICATED TO INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP

Phi Beta Delta is the first honor society dedicated to recognizing scholarly achievement in international education. The society, founded at California State University – Long Beach in 1986, has grown to become an international society with over 180 chapters.

Phi Beta Delta's goals are:

- To recognize the scholarly achievement of international students and scholars, U.S students who have studied abroad, and faculty and staff who are involved in international activities;

- To advance the development of academic– based international programming;

- To provide a network on each campus for faculty, staff, and international students involved in international endeavors.
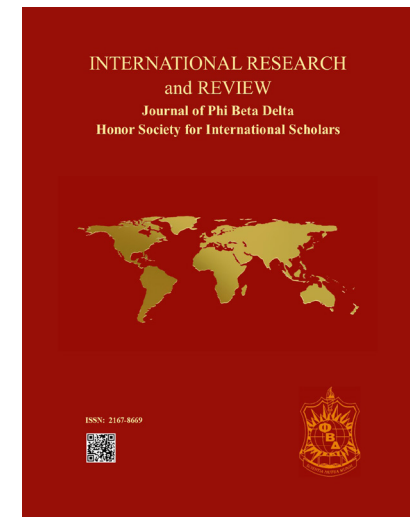

THE MEMBER

Phi Beta Delta members include:

- International students who have demonstrated high scholastic achievement at their US institutions;

- Domestic students who have demonstrated high scholastic achievement in the pursuit of academic studies abroad;

- Distinguished faculty, staff, and visiting scholars involved in teaching, researching, or providing services and programs to international students and scholars.

THE SOCIETY

Phi Beta Delta awards scholarships to students, faculty, and staff; publishes the journal International Research and Review; and hosts an annual conference on international education and exchanges.
