

CUNY: Interested In Becoming A Diplomat? Click Here

2021-2022 Fulbright U.S. Scholar Competition Launch

Greetings from the Fulbright Program!

The 2021-22 Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program competition is now open! The application deadline is September 15, 2020.

U.S. citizenship is required.

We encourage you to view our updated catalog of awards to identify your best match. Our blog post on 5 tips how to jump start your application will help you get started.

To learn more about application tips and Fulbright opportunities around the world, join an upcoming webinar:

February 5: What's new for 2021-2022
February 12: Western Hemisphere
February 19: Europe and Eurasia
February 26: Middle East and North Africa
March 4: South and Central Asia
March 11: Sub-Saharan Africa
March 18: East Asia and the Pacific

Can't join us live? All of our webinars are recorded and uploaded to our website. To view more upcoming and archived webinars, visit our Webinar Schedule.

Please reach out to our specialists with any questions!

Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program Team
Contact: scholars@iie.org

Application Resources

- Application Guidelines
- Catalog of Awards
- Eligibility Criteria
- Fulbright Scholar Directory
- Letter of Invitation Guidance
- Review Criteria
- Webinar Schedule
- 5 tips to jump start your application

Refer a Colleague

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

