PHI BETA DELTA MATCHING FUND CAMPAIGN

Phi Beta Delta is deeply indebted to Dr. Ann Marie Legreid for facilitating the Phi Beta Delta Matching Fund Campaign again this year. The Matching Fund Campaign (including the special option of lifetime membership) extends through June 30, 2022. A $5,000 matching challenge grant has been issued to members and friends of Phi Beta Delta Honor Society for International Scholars. Donations of any amount are welcome and appreciated. Every dollar counts and your contribution will make a difference as Phi Beta Delta continues its important mission in promoting and supporting international education and exchange. Our donations go to support student scholarships as well as the annual Phi Beta Delta national conference.

Phi Beta Delta extends its deepest appreciation and gratitude to Dr. Ann Marie Legreid, to all of our donors <http://www.phibetadelta.org/matchingFunds.php>, and to our anonymous donor who provided the matching funds!

In Memoriam

Dr. Amy (Sheng Chieh) Leh

The Board of Directors, the Chapters, and the Members of Phi Beta Delta expresses its condolences to the family, colleagues, and friends of Dr. Amy (Sheng Chieh) Leh, executive director of Phi Beta Delta from (2017-2021). Dr. Leh passed away on November 22, 2021.

She was an accomplished educator, serving in the CSUSB Department of Educational Leadership and Technology for more than 20 years. She wrote more than 30 articles and gave more than 100 national and international presentations. Previous to becoming executive director and CEO of Phi Beta Delta, she served as treasurer and president of Gamma Lambda chapter. She received her Ph.D. in education from Arizona State University.

In addition, Dr. Leh provided guidance, backing, and encouragement to the International Research and Review. Her kindnesses will be missed.

Phi Beta Delta is so grateful for the work completed by Ms. Leora Mohr, who edited the music concert. Ms. Mohr is a professional who donated her time to this endeavor.

We deeply thank all of the musicians who contributed their time and talent to this music concert.

“We are indeed a collage, a human collage of all kinds of different people who share a commitment to internationalism in its finest sense.”

Paul Rich

Phi Beta Delta extends its deepest appreciation and gratitude to all of the conference committee members, our presenters and moderators, and technical staff, that made this conference possible.

Thank you to our members for attending!

International Research and Review

The IRR is the official journal of Phi Beta Delta, Honor Society for International Scholars. It is published on-line only on the Phi Beta Delta website. It is published in the Fall and Spring depending on the quantity and quality of the submissions. On the menu above, refer to the Aims and Scope for more detailed information about the publication. The Author Guidelines provides information to the authors about submission, format, and structure. On the website both Current and Past Issues are available.

The Proceedings of Phi Beta Delta

The Proceedings of Phi Beta Delta is published for the purpose of: providing an outlet for member articles, ideas and activities related to international education; serving as a record of Conference, Webinar, and other presentations; and serving as a record of issues, topics, and information about the Society. These articles may be written members of Phi Beta Delta: faculty, staff, and students. As the Proceedings are published online, they may include visual and written formats, along with appropriate verified links. The Proceedings is published in tandem with the IRR when there are sufficient submissions.

Medallion e-Newsletter

The Medallion e-Newsletter is our quarterly publication of Society news and events. It is sent to all members of the Society. It includes issues, commentary, blogs, reports, and information about chapter activities.

Send all correspondence and submissions for the International Research and Review and the Proceedings to Dr. Michael Smithee, Director of Publications and Editor, at ms@smitheeassociates.com

Send all correspondence and submissions for the Medallion e-Newsletter to Sarah Lindell, Editor, at slindell@niu.edu

INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND CEO
DR. HYUNKYOUNG OH!*

Dr. Oh is a Professor and the Coordinator of the Adapted Physical Education Credential Program in the Department of Kinesiology, San Bernardino (CSUSB). Her specialized area is Adapted Physical Education (APE) and Pedagogy. She teaches APE credential and pedagogy courses. Dr. Oh's research focuses on both the APE and general physical education teacher education, behavioral research includes learners with disabilities with challenging behaviors, teacher self-efficacy, and teachers' emotional reactions toward learners' challenging behavior. Before she joined CSUSB, she was a program coordinator of an adapted physical education program at Indiana University, where she earned her doctorate in Human Performance. Dr. Oh received the prestigious Patricia Austin award from the North American Federation of Adapted Physical Activity (NAFAPA) for outstanding dissertation research in fall 2006. In addition to teaching responsibilities, Dr. Oh serves as Faculty Director at the Center for International Studies and Programs at CSUSB. Her primary responsibilities are advancing campus internationalization with emphasis on implementing CSUSB strategic goals for student and faculty success. She is currently co-chair of American Council on Education internationalization Lab project.

Dr. Oh served in many leadership roles including, but not limited to Program Chair, the National Adapted Physical Education Conference in 2010; Chair, Awards, and Scholarships Committee in the California State Council on Adapted Physical Education; CSU's Adapted Physical Education Coordinator representative, the California State Council on Adapted Physical Education; Board member, the International Federation of Adapted Physical Activity (IFAPA) and NAFAPA.
